

BABY'S FACE MASS OF SORES

Ears Looked as if They Would Drop Off—Body Entirely Covered with Humor—Three Doctors Could Not Cure—Child Grew Worse.

CURED BY CUTICURA IN TWO WEEKS

Mrs. George J. Steese, of 701 Coburn St., Akron, Ohio, tells in the following letter of another of those remarkable cures of torturing, disfiguring skin humors daily made by Cuticura Soap, assisted by Cuticura Ointment, after physicians, and all else had failed: "I felt it my duty to parents of other poor suffering babies to tell you what Cuticura has done for my little daughter. She broke out all over her body with a humor, and we used everything recommended, but without results. I called in three doctors, they all claimed they could help her, but she continued to grow worse. Her body was a mass of sores, and her little face was eaten away, her ears looked as if they would drop off. Neighbors advised me to get Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and before I had used half of the cake of soap and box of ointment the sores had all healed, and my little one's face and body was as clear as a newborn babe's. I would not be without it again if it cost five dollars, instead of seventy-five cents, which is all it cost us to cure our baby, after spending many dollars on doctors and medicines without any benefit whatever."

Lessons by Phonograph.

Teaching modern languages by means of the phonograph is a new device. It is employed by some of the many correspondence schools that have sprung up all over the country in the last year or two.

At the headquarters of the school the teacher speaks the lesson into the funnel of the machine. These records are then mailed to the student, who may live a thousand miles away, together with a phonograph and several blank records.

In his own home the student sets the phonograph going and listens while it repeats as pure German, Italian or French as the teacher knows how to speak. Having learned the lesson he repeats it to the talking machine and sends the record back to the school, where the teacher criticizes it for his benefit.

Printed lessons are sent out also, but from the phonograph it is asserted the pupil learns correct pronunciation as he never could from books, and almost as well as he would from the instructor at first hand.

Good Spirits.

Good spirits don't all come from Kentucky. Their main source is the liver—and all the fine spirits ever made in the Blue Grass State could not remedy a bad liver or the hundred-and-one ill effects it produces. You can't have good spirits and a bad liver at the same time. Your liver must be in fine condition if you would feel buoyant, happy and hopeful, bright of eye, light of step, vigorous and successful in your pursuits. You can put your liver in fine condition by using Green's August Flower—the greatest of all medicines for the liver and stomach and a certain cure for dyspepsia or indigestion. It has been a favorite household remedy for over thirty-five years. August Flower will make your liver healthy and active and thus insure you a liberal supply of "good spirits." Trial size, 25c; regular bottles, 75c. At all druggists.

Tonic to the System.

For liver trouble and constipation, there is nothing better than DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills. They do not weaken the stomach. Their action upon the system is mild, pleasant and harmless. Bob Moore, of LaFayette, Ind., says, "No use talking, DeWitt's Little Early Risers do their work. All other pills I have used gripe and make me sick in the stomach and never cured me." DeWitt's Little Early Risers proved to be the long sought relief. They are simply perfect." Persons traveling find Little Early Risers the most reliable remedy to carry with them.

A Costly Joke.

"I suppose there comes to every man a desire to do something smart on an occasion," said the drummer, as a sign took the place of his smile, according to the New York Times.

"Well, such a desire came to me as I was leaving a certain southern city after a week's stay. The waiter at my table had called me 'General' and been at great pains to care for me and I made up my mind to reward him with a $5 bill. It was a counterfeit with which I had been stuck, but I thought it would be the biggest kind of a joke to work it off on Bob.

"I had got a hundred miles away when I was arrested on a telegram for passing counterfeit money, and when taken back I was arraigned in a United States court and had to give bail and appear on three different occasions. I had a lawyer and other expenses, lost a good three weeks altogether and just escaped prison by the skin of my teeth. In addition to this I had to make good to the waiter, who sorrowfully shook his head when he received the money and said:

"I'm sorry for you, General, but this may be de means of savin' your contemptible soul from the gallus!"

Every Two Minutes

Physicians tell us that all the blood in a healthy human body passes through the heart once in every two minutes. If this action becomes irregular the whole body suffers. Poor health follows poor blood; Scott's Emulsion makes the blood pure. One reason why is such a great aid is because it passes so quickly into the blood. It is partly digested before it enters the stomach; a double advantage in this. Less work for the stomach; quicker and more direct benefits. To get the greatest amount of good with the least possible effort is the desire of everyone in poor health. Scott's Emulsion does just that. A change for the better takes place even before you expect it.

NEBO NOTES.

The excitement in the tobacco market still continues and the farmers are highly pleased. Should the prices still remain as they are at present the farmers will plant a big crop and bring prices back to the old standard.

The Nebo correspondent of the Hustler tells of a cow whose owner in moving turned his cow out of the lot at the place he was leaving expecting her to go to the stalkfield where he could get her at some future time, but instead of doing so she took the road and went to the new home and went to the gate and bawled for some one to come and let her in. There is a man living in this place, said he would have to move onto a back street or never get any more eggs. When asked the reason he said that so many wagons passed and that he had moved so often and hauled his chickens every time they heard a wagon rattle they would lay down and cross their legs to be tied.

Success of a Play.

Much of the success of a play of Mr. Winston Churchill's dramatization of his own novel, "The Crisis," is due to the skill with which the author has subordinated the unimportant events in his novel and brought into the proper dramatic focus the love story of Virginia Carvel and Stephen Brice. This in the novel as all readers of the remarkable book will remember was of subordinate interest to the huge conflict between the North and South which loomed before the reader; politics too played its part. In the play one sees all these factors, fully as clearly as in the novel; but now they are used merely to develop the love story of the two principal characters. This is regarded as the very quintessence of dramatic constructive skill, and has won for Mr. Churchill immediate place among the dramatists of this country. This interesting play will be seen at Morton's Theatre on Tuesday, Jan. 17, when Miss Nannette Comstock will make her first stellar appearance in this city as Virginia Carvel.
